Step aboard to an age when train travel was the epitome of sophistication and prepare to be amazed.

Experience glamour, fine dining and fun on Belmond British Pullman.

FABULOUS FARE, ELEGANT DÉCOR

From lavish brunches and afternoon teas to five-course dinners, cuisine is a highlight as you travel in the immaculately restored vintage carriages decorated with bespoke marquetry.

Menus feature the finest seasonal delicacies from the British Isles, from guinea fowl and sea bream to smoked salmon and magnificent cheeses, all expertly prepared by our Executive Head Chef and his team. Drinks are similarly delectable: as well as Laurent-Perrier champagne and sommelier-selected wines, we are proud to serve tea from Cornwall's Tregothnan Estate, the only place in England with the perfect climate for growing Camellia sinensis bushes.

Equally ravishing is the décor. Behind the refined umber and cream livery, the interiors of each of our 11 carriages are dazzlingly different. With names such as Audrey, Vera and Minerva and individually designed marquetry, they once formed part of an historic luxury train and each has its own story to tell: some carriages were used by royalty, others took part in the Festival of Britain or starred in movies. As you sip your champagne and take in the vistas of the glorious British countryside, you may find yourself smiling in anticipation of the adventure that awaits you.

GRAND DESIGNS

The stunning wood panelling in our carriages was restored by the Dunn family, experts in the rare craft of marquetry. Today, Cheryl Dunn uses the same tools and methods as her father and grandfather, who worked on many of the original carriages, to bring the beautiful panels back to life. Her favourite pieces are found in Phoenix, our 1927 first-class parlour car. "I love the oval flower spray and ribbon design, and the warm autumnal shades," she says.

RECIPES FOR SUCCESS

Once you have sampled the fine cuisine, you are sure to want to try it again. If you would like to recreate our delicious dishes at home, you can find the recipes in the Dining section of our website at belmond.com/british pullman.

Enjoy a combination of exquisitely presented cuisine, elegant carriages and friendly service from our on-board team.

A COMMUNITY SPIRIT

From supporting Venice in Peril to setting up an agricultural school in Peru, our philosophy is to act in an ethical manner and to support initiatives that help local people in the environments in which we operate.

Belmond is committed to responsible tourism: we place great emphasis on supporting local communities and establishing sustainable practices wherever our trains and cruises operate. We strive to exert a positive influence on the lives of local inhabitants and to protect sites of global cultural importance. Whether working with community food projects, or helping to protect animal species, we aim to assist in ways appropriate to each location.

The Venice Simplon-Orient-Express has long supported Venice in Peril, raising funds for projects such as the restoration of architectural treasures. In Myanmar, where we operate two river cruisers—Belmond Road To Mandalay and Belmond Orcaella—we have supported the construction of schools and medical centres and furnished them with equipment. In Peru, where we run the Belmond Hiram Bingham train, we have instigated an agricultural and animal husbandry school and support local farmers with fair trade purchasing. We constantly seek ways to engage and help.
